Gerry F. Miller, 49, Chief Legislative Analyst for the City of Los Angeles, began his career with the City in 1985 with the Office of the City Clerk. He subsequently moved to the Office of the City Administrative Officer, where he worked in budget and capital finance. As Chief of Debt Administration in the CAO's office, Miller oversaw all General Fund and special fund debt activities and represented the CAO in negotiations on economic development programs, including the Staples Arena and Playa Vista.

Miller joined the CLA's office as Executive Officer in 1998 and served as Acting/Interim CLA from December 2004 until his appointment in September 2005.

Miller holds a Bachelor of Arts degree, Cum Laude, from Arizona State University and a Master of Business Administration - Finance/Marketing from the University of Southern California.

The 2009 AIA/LA "BUILDING LA'S FUTURE" Breakfast Series, which will feature such distinguished speakers as County Supervisor Mark Ridley-Thomas, Larry Eisenberg, Guy Mehula, Steven Olsen, Geraldine Knatz, Brian League, Jim Clarke, Gerry Miller and Gary Lee Moore, will serve as an excellent opportunity for key leaders in the A/E/C industry to engage directly with decision-makers that presently have ongoing capital improvement programs that are helping to shape the City in which we live.
